

Devin Fawcett

Tacoma, WA | Devin.Fawcett@gmail.com | <https://dfawcettportfolio.github.io/GitHubPage/>

SUMMARY

Air Force veteran with six years of honorable service and a proven record of excelling in high-pressure environments. Skilled at resolving challenges independently and as part of a team, with the ability to adapt quickly and deliver results. Brings expertise in system analysis and process improvement, supported by strong capabilities in troubleshooting, technical writing, documentation, conflict resolution, customer service, audience-specific communication, and the development of training programs and instructional materials. Recognized for accountability, reliability, and a solutions-focused approach.

EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Science in Information Technology from The University of Washington Tacoma, awarded June 2025 (Dean's list)

HISTORY

YMCA | Email Support Specialist | July 2025 – Present

- Support members and staff with tasks including account support and internal troubleshooting
- Maintain professional communication by ensuring clarity, courtesy, and etiquette
- Reliably and confidentially handle sensitive information including credit card information
- Thoroughly document all actions taken for clear, accurate, and complete record keeping
- Experience in customer service, industry platforms, technical support, record keeping, developing training materials, cross-department coordination, and systems analysis and improvement

Pursuit of Bachelors Degree | Information Technology | March 2022 – June 2025

UPS | Warehouse Associate | November 2019-August 2022

- Unloaded delivery trucks, including sorting and handling of hazardous materials
- Maintained high flow rates while prioritizing safety and accuracy

Career Transition & Independent Work | 2018–2020

- Used transition period post-military to strengthen workplace readiness and communication skills
- Provided tech support and troubleshooting to individuals and small businesses
- Translated complex technical issues for non-technical users and resolved customer inquiries
- Adapted quickly to short-term roles, maintaining professionalism across varied environments
- Experience in industry platforms, technical support, customer service, hardware repair and assembly, troubleshooting, upgrading, and maintaining hardware and software components

United States Air Force | 911 Operator and Emergency Dispatch | 2016-2018

- Worked as sole Fire and Medical Dispatcher on shift (12 hrs.) for population of approximately 15,000 across 3 dispatch zones
- Coordinated with internal and external agencies to ensure swift response to all emergency needs
- Trained multiple other dispatchers to 100% certification rate.
- Demonstrated professional communication across phone, radio, and email by maintaining clarity, courtesy, and etiquette
- Experience in emergency management, conflict management, composure under stress, multi-channel dispatch, developing training materials, record keeping, cross-department and multi-organizational coordination, and systems analysis and improvement

United States Air Force | Firefighter | 2012-2016

- Operated multiple classifications of vehicles and equipment with zero incidents
- Performed fire ground operations, including asset protection and facility evacuation
- Provided coverage for more than 35 square miles of base territory and 50+ B-52 aircraft